PRESENTATIONS AND PROCLAMATIONS

Presentation: Actor's Mission Representatives

Brad Russell, the treasurer of the Actor's Mission, approached the Governing Body with a request to waive the tap fee to install a sprinkler system in their new building, located at 440 South Main Street, pursuant to a recently passed Ordinance allowing for the waiver of tap fees at the Council's discretion (Ordinance 2018-12). Mr. Russell indicated that saving the cost of the tap fees to install the sprinkler system would be very helpful for the Actor's Mission to continue their endeavor of opening a theater at this location. They have been working quickly to move everything into their new building, as the Elks Lodge recently closed down. They will hold the remainder of their performances at the Broadway Theater this season. The Governing Body reviewed a letter presented by the Actor's Mission.

Moved by Councilor Armstrong, seconded by Councilor Halter to approve the request to waive tap fees for the Actor's Mission. Upon roll call the following voted in favor: Councilors Armstrong, Savage, Mosbey, Shalata, Tate, Wendorf, Zotti, Halter, and Mayor Demshar. Motion carried unanimously.

Mr. Russel thanked the Governing Body for their approval, and notified the Governing Body that Taco Time will be holding a fundraiser on November 14, 2018, at both of the Rock Springs locations, as well as the Green River location, with a percentage of sales going to the Actor's Mission.

Mayor Demshar asked Rick Beckwith, City Attorney, to present the options coming from the Executive Session. Mr. Beckwith addressed the Governing Body, stating that there has been a grievance filed by a firefighter, and it is incumbent upon the Governing Body as the Corporate Authority to act upon this grievance. The firefighter in question has raised a grievance regarding not accumulating paid time off, to include sick leave and vacation, while on Worker's Compensation for longer than 30 days, as the allowance of this accumulation has been past practice. The City has translated the Firefighters Local 1499 Labor Agreement and has paid the firefighter the wages due, in full, during his time on Worker's Compensation, but has not allowed for accumulation of paid time off after 30 days had passed. The Governing Body has three options to respond to the grievance: first, agree with grievance and continue to allow firefighters to accumulate paid time off while on Worker's Compensation for more than 30 days; second, reject the grievance and disallow accumulation based on the City's interpretation of the Firefighters Local 1499 Labor Agreement; or third, to agree to allow accumulation of paid time off in this particular instance, and not allow accumulation of paid time off from this point forward.

Moved by Councilor Zotti, seconded by Councilor Shalata to approve the third option, which is to agree to allow accumulation of paid time off in this particular instance, and not allow accumulation of paid time off from this point forward. Upon roll call the following voted in favor: Councilors Armstrong, Savage, Mosbey, Shalata, Wendorf, Zotti, Halter, and Mayor Demshar. Motion carried, with Councilor Tate voting no.

Correspondence

November 15, 2018

Chief Pacheco, Paul Kauchich and Mayor Demshar:

The Rock Springs Main Street/URA will once again offer carriage rides on November 24, December 1, 8, 15 and 22 as we have the past 4 years. The route will remain the same; a circle loop around Main and Broadway. The horse trailer will park in the lot near the M Street underpass and load/unload passengers at the Historic Train Depot/Coal Train Coffee Train Depot.

TIMEFRAME: 11 a.m. - 2 p.m.

We are hoping to have a little more Police presence during these hours to help with the flow of Downtown traffic and the safety of the community.

ACCESS to Main and Broadway will still be open to the public we are just asking that the public be cautious of the carriage, hopefully with Police presence we can avoid an accident.

Should you have any further inquiries in relation to the matter please contact me.

Respectfully,

Chad M. Banks
Manager – Rock Springs Main Street/URA

The Honorable Mayor Carl Demshar City of Rock Springs 212 D Street Rock Springs, WY 82901

Dear Mayor Demshar and Members of the City Council:

The date for the 21st Annual Lighted Holiday Parade has been set. This year's theme will be The Polar Express. Parade applications will be available at the Rock Springs Chamber of Commerce on November 1st. The Holiday Lighted Parade will travel through Historic Downtown Rock Springs starting on the corner of "C" Street and Broadway. The floats will move down South Main, then turn right on to "E" Street, left on to Broadway and then under the underpass and on to "M" Street, make a left on to Pilot Butte. Floats will turn left on to "K" Street, followed by a right turn on to North Front. After traveling down North Front the parade will end at the corner of Elk Street and North Front.

I respectfully request permission to use this route for the parade on December 1st, 2018 from 2:00 pm until 7:30 pm. We will begin organizing the parade participants beginning at 3:00pm at the old hospital parking lot. I also ask that we have a police escort leading the parade beginning at 5:00.

We are very cognizant of the amount of effort and financial support that the City of Rock Springs has put into this event for the past two decades. Thank you and much thanks to the many city employees who work tirelessly to make this such a wonderful event.

Sincerely,

Ríck

Standard Terms and Conditions for Human Capital Accounts

Please note the following terms and conditions related to your decision to utilize Willis Towers Watson to purchase insurance coverage, products and/or services:

Services and Responsibilities

The services we provide to you will rely in significant part on the facts, information and direction provided by you or your authorized representatives. In order to make our relationship work, we must each provide the other with accurate and timely facts, information and direction as is reasonably required. You must provide us with complete and accurate information regarding your loss experience, risk exposures, and changes in the analysis or scope of your risk exposures and any other information reasonably requested by us or insurers. It is important that you advise us of any changes in your business operations that may affect our Services, the insurance coverages, or other services we place for you. If you have any doubt about what information is material, please ask us inasmuch as failure to provide accurate and current information could adversely impact your insurance coverage.

We will assess the financial soundness of the insurers we recommend to provide your coverages based on publicly available information, including that produced by well-recognized rating agencies. Upon request, we will provide you with our factual analysis of such insurers. We cannot, however, guarantee or warrant the solvency of any insurer or any intermediary that we may use to place your coverage.

The final decisions with respect to underwriting submissions and all matters relating to your insurance coverages and employee benefits program are yours. We will procure the insurance coverage and services chosen by you, assist in confirming coverage, and review and transmit policies to you.

We will review all policies and endorsements for the purpose of confirming their accuracy and conformity to negotiated specifications and your instructions and advise you of any errors in, or recommended changes to, such policies. You agree that you will also review all such documents and advise us of any questions you have or of any document or provision which you believe may not be in accordance with your instructions as soon as possible, and in no event longer than two weeks, after you receive them.

We will meet, as requested by you, with your representatives to explain coverage and policies. We will promptly respond to your requests for coverage information, analysis of changing market conditions, and assistance in reporting subsequent changes in information to insurance companies and service providers.

In our capacity as employee benefits professionals, we do not provide legal or tax advice. We encourage you to seek any such advice you want or need from competent legal counsel or tax professionals.

Confidentiality

We will treat information you provide us in the course of our professional relationship as confidential and will use it only in performing services for you. We may share this information with third parties as may be required to provide services. We may also disclose this information to the extent required to comply with applicable laws or regulations or the order of any court or tribunal. By providing us with data, you agree and represent that you are fully authorized to possess that data and to provide it to us, and further that we are fully authorized to obtain, maintain, process and transfer such data in a commercially reasonable manner and as we reasonably deem advisable in order to provide our services. In so doing, we agree that we will comply with all applicable privacy laws, and that we have implemented and will maintain commercially reasonable and appropriate security measures in order to protect sensitive information from unauthorized use or disclosure. Records you provide us will remain your property and will be returned to you upon request, although we will have the right to retain copies of such records to the extent required in the ordinary course of our business or by law. You will treat any information we provide to you, including data, recommendations, proposals, or reports, as confidential, and you will not disclose it to any third parties. You may disclose this information to the extent required to comply with applicable laws or regulations or the order of any court or tribunal. We retain the sole rights to all of our proprietary computer programs, systems, methods and procedures and to all files developed by us.

Willis Towers Watson represents and warrants that, with respect to the personal information of any Massachusetts resident, (1) it has and is capable of maintaining appropriate security measures to protect Personal Information consistent with 201 CMR 17.00 and any applicable federal regulations; and (2) as of the Agreement Effective Date, it has and will at all times during the term of this Agreement, maintain a comprehensive written information security program that complies with applicable privacy and data security laws. Willis Towers Watson's information security program shall contain at least the following:

- Reasonable restrictions upon physical access to records containing personal information and storage of such records and data in locked facilities, storage areas or counters.
- Regular monitoring to ensure that the comprehensive information security program is operating in a manner reasonably calculated to prevent unauthorized access to or unauthorized use of personal information; and upgrading information safeguards as necessary to limit risks.
- Reviewing the scope of the security measures at least annually or whenever there is a material change in business practices that may reasonably implicate the security or integrity of records containing personal information.
- Documenting responsive actions taken in connection with any incident involving a breach of security, and mandatory post-incident review of events and actions taken, if any, to make changes in business practices related to protection of personal information.

In the event that you or any of the benefit plans you sponsor need to enter into business associate agreements with Willis Towers Watson in order to satisfy the requirements of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act, the regulations implementing that Act (the "Standards for Privacy of Individually Identifiable Health Information," codified at 45 C.F.R. parts 160 and 164), or any other similar law, you agree to work with Willis Towers Watson to execute an agreement in compliance with these requirements.

Carrier Quotes

The quotes we have provided to you are based upon the information that you have provided to us. If you discover that previously submitted information is inaccurate or incomplete, please advise us immediately so that we can attempt to revalidate terms with insurers.

A carrier quote is an offer to provide coverage. Offers can be modified or withdrawn prior to your acceptance through your order to bind coverage. The quote itself is not a legally binding commitment or a confirmation of actual coverage. Should you choose to bind coverage, we will secure a formal commitment, typically in the form of a binder on a form issued or approved by the carrier(s) at issue.

Compensation and Disclosure

Willis Towers Watson is an insurance producer licensed to do business worldwide, including in all 50 states and the District of Columbia. Insurance producers are authorized by their license to work with insurance purchasers and discuss the benefits and terms and conditions of insurance contracts; to offer advice concerning the substantive benefits of particular insurance contracts; to sell insurance; and to obtain insurance for purchasers. The role of an insurance producer in any particular transaction involved one or more of these activities.

Willis Towers Watson | | | | | | | | | | | |

The compensation that will be paid to Willis Towers Watson will vary based on the insurance contract it sells. Depending on the insurer and insurance contract you select, compensation may be paid by the insurer selling the insurance contract or by another third party. Such compensation may be contingent and may vary depending on a number of factors, including the insurance contract and insurer you select. In some cases, other factors such as the volume of business Willis Towers Watson provides to the insurer or the profitability of insurance contracts Willis Towers Watson provides to the insurer also may affect compensation. Willis Towers Watson may accept this compensation in locations where it is legally permissible, and meet standards and controls to address conflicts of interest. Because insurers account for contingent payments when developing general pricing, the price you pay for your policies is not affected whether Willis Towers Watson accepts contingent payments or not. If you prefer that we not accept contingent compensation related to your policy, we will request that your insurer(s) exclude your business from their contingent payment calculations.

Upon request, Willis Towers Watson will provide you with additional information about the compensation Willis Towers Watson expects to receive based in whole or in part on your purchase of insurance, and (if applicable) the compensation expected to be received based in whole or in part on any alternative quotes presented to you.

To the extent Willis Towers Watson is compensated by commissions paid to us by insurers, they will be earned for the entire policy period at the time we place policies for you. We will be paid the commission percentage stated for the placement of your insurance as indicated, and will receive the same commission percentage for all subsequent renewals of this policy unless we negotiate a different commission percentage with you.

Commission schedules and other compensation arrangements related to our services on your behalf may change over time and may not always be congruent with your specific policy period. Willis Towers Watson will provide you with accurate information to the best of our knowledge when information is requested or presented to you, but it is possible that compensation arrangements may change over time.

In some cases the use of a wholesale broker may be beneficial to you. We will not directly or indirectly place or renew your insurance business through a wholesale broker unless we first disclose to you in writing any compensation we or our corporate parents, subsidiaries or affiliates will receive as a result.

Willis Towers Watson develops panels of insurers in certain market segments. Participating insurers are reviewed on a variety of factors. Commission rates on panel placements may be higher than rates paid on business placed outside of the panel process. Willis Towers Watson discloses its commission rates to clients on quotes obtained through the panel process prior to binding the coverage. In some instances, insurers pay an administration fee to participate in the panel process, or for additional reporting. Your Willis Towers Watson broker will provide you with additional information on Willis Towers Watson Panels upon request.

You may choose to use a third party administrator, utilization review firm or other similar service provider in connection with the insurance coverages we place for you or the services we provide to you. If you elect to use a service provider from which we or our corporate parents, subsidiaries or affiliates will receive any compensation directly or indirectly relating to the services you purchase from the provider, we will disclose additional information regarding that compensation to you before you make a final decision to use the service provider.

We or our corporate parents, subsidiaries, and affiliates may provide reinsurance brokerage services to insurers with which your coverage is placed pursuant to separate agreements with those insurers. Under these arrangements we may be compensated by the insurers for the services provided in addition to any commissions we may receive for placement of your insurance coverages.

In certain instances and where explicitly agreed upon in advance, Willis Towers Watson may collect insurance premium from you and remit the premium to the appropriate insurance company or intermediary. In doing so, we may also receive and retain interest on premiums you pay from the date we receive the funds until we pay them to the insurers or their intermediaries, or until we return them to you after we receive such funds.

As an insurance intermediary, we normally act for you. However, for some insurance products we or our corporate parents, subsidiaries or affiliates may have managing general agent agreements or other agreements which give us binding authority enabling us to accept business on their behalf and immediately provide coverage for a risk. Further, we or our corporate parents, subsidiaries or affiliates may arrange lineslips or similar facilities which enable an insurer to bind business for itself and other insurers and we may manage these lineslips for such insurers. We may place your insurance business under a managing general agent's agreement, a binding authority, lineslip or similar facility when we reasonably consider these match your insurance requirements/instructions. When we intend to bind coverage for you under such a facility, we shall inform you prior to the inception of the insurance contract.

Subsidiaries of Willis North America Inc are members of a major international group of companies. In addition to the commissions received by us from insurers for placement of your insurance coverages, other parties, such as excess and surplus lines brokers, wholesale brokers, reinsurance intermediaries, underwriting managers and similar parties (some of which may be owned in whole or in part by our corporate parents or affiliates), may earn and retain usual and customary commissions for their role in providing insurance products or services to you under their separate contracts with insurers or reinsurers.

The insurance market is complex, and there could be other relationships which are not described in this document which might create conflicts of interest. If a conflict arises for which there is no practicable way of complying with this commitment, we will promptly inform you and withdraw from the engagement, unless you wish us to continue to provide the services and will provide your written consent. Please let us know in writing if you have concerns or we will assume that you understand and consent to our providing our services pursuant to these terms.

Prices on the services specified herein are exclusive of all federal, state, and local sales, use, excise, receipts, gross income and other similar taxes and governmental charges. Any such taxes or charges upon the services provided hereunder, now imposed or hereafter becoming effective during the Term of this agreement, shall be added to the price herein provided and paid by you unless, in lieu thereof, you provide us with a valid tax exemption certificate acceptable to us.

The Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA) is a U.S. law aimed at foreign financial institutions and other financial intermediaries (including insurance companies and intermediaries such as brokers) to prevent tax evasion by U.S. citizens and residents through offshore accounts. In order to comply with FATCA, insurance companies and intermediaries must meet certain legal requirements. Insurance placed with an insurance company that is not FATCA compliant may result in a 30% withholding tax on your premium. Where FATCA is applicable to you, in order to avoid this withholding tax, Willis Towers Watson will only place your insurance with FATCA-compliant insurers and intermediaries for which no withholding is required unless you instruct us to do otherwise and provide your advance written authorization to do so. If you do instruct Willis Towers Watson to place your insurance with a non-FATCA compliant insurer or intermediary, you may have to pay an additional amount equivalent to 30% of the premium covering U.S.-sourced risks to cover the withholding tax. If you instruct us to place your insurance with a non-FATCA compliant insurer but you do not agree to pay the additional 30% withholding if required, we will not place your insurance with such insurer. Please consult your tax adviser for full details of FATCA.

Premium Payment/Handling of Funds

You agree to provide immediately available funds for payment of premiums by the payment dates specified in the insurance policies, invoices or other payment documents. Failure to pay premium on time may prevent coverage from incepting or result in cancellation of coverage by the insurer. We will not be responsible for any consequences that may arise from any delay or failure by you to pay the amount payable by the indicated date.

We will handle any premiums you pay through us and any funds which we receive from insurers or intermediaries for payment or return to you in accordance with the requirements and restrictions of applicable state and federal insurance laws and regulations and state unclaimed property laws. In some cases we may transfer your funds directly to insurers. In other case we may be required to transfer your funds to third parties such as wholesale brokers, excess and surplus lines brokers, or managing general agents for carrying out transactions for you.

Ethical Business Practice

We do not tolerate unethical behavior either in our own activities or in those with whom we seek to do business. We will comply with all applicable laws, regulations, and rules.

Sanctions

The sanctions profile of different business(es) may differ on the basis of a number of complex factors. Whether a sanctions program applies to you depends on a number of factors, including your ownership structure, control, location, and the nationality of your employees. In certain circumstances, the United States and other countries prohibit or restrict companies from conducting business in certain jurisdictions (e.g. Cuba), and can sanction companies who conduct such business. We cannot advise on the applicability of sanctions programs either to you or to insurers nor can we guarantee or otherwise warrant the position of any insurer under existing or future sanctions programs. You should take legal advice as you deem appropriate in this regard.

We will comply with all applicable sanctions programs and you are advised that, where obliged by law, we may have to take certain actions, including freezing of funds held on behalf of parties and individuals as required by sanctions programs.

Anti-money Laundering

To comply with applicable anti-money laundering regulations there are times when we may ask clients to confirm (or reconfirm) their identity. We may need to do this at the time you become a client or have been one for some time or for example, when checking details on proposal forms and transferring claims payments. This information may be shared with other subsidiaries of Willis Towers Watson PLC and where we deem necessary with regulatory or law enforcement bodies. Please note that we are prohibited from disclosing to you any report we may make based on knowledge or suspicion of money laundering, including the fact that such a report has been made.

We have systems that protect our clients and ourselves against fraud and other crime and we may utilize the services of third parties in order to identify and verify clients. Client information can be used to prevent crime and trace those responsible. We may check your details against financial crime databanks. If false or inaccurate information is provided, we may be obliged to pass such details to relevant regulatory agencies that may use this information.

Intellectual Property

Willis Towers Watson shall own and retain all right, title, and interest in and to the following (collectively, "Willis Towers Watson Property"): (i) all software, hardware, technology, documentation, and information provided by Willis Towers Watson in connection with the Claim and Risk Control Services; (ii) all ideas, know-how, methodology, models and techniques that may be developed, conceived, or invented by Willis Towers Watson during its performance under this Agreement; and (iii) all worldwide patent, copyright, trade secret, trademark and other intellectual property rights in and to the property described in clauses (i) and (ii) above. Accordingly, all rights in the Willis Towers Watson Property are hereby expressly reserved.

Electronic Communication

We agree that we may communicate with each other from time to time by electronic mail, sometimes attaching further electronic data as and when the circumstances require attachments. By consenting to this method of communication you and we accept the inherent risks (including the security risks of interception of or unauthorized access to such communications, the risks of corruption of such communications and the risks of viruses or other harmful devices). We each agree, however, that we will employ reasonable virus checking procedures on our computer systems, and we will each be responsible for checking all electronic communications received for viruses. You will also be responsible for checking that messages received are complete. In the event of a dispute neither of us will challenge the legal evidentiary standing of an electronic document, and the Willis Towers Watson system shall be deemed the definitive record of electronic communications and documentation.

Please note that our system blocks certain file extensions for security reasons, including, but not necessarily limited to, .rar, .text, .vbs, .mpeg, .mp3, .cmd, .cpl, .wav, .exe, .bat, .scr, .mpq, .avi, .com, .pif, .wma, .mpa, .mpg, .jpeg. Emails with such files attached will not get through to us; and no message will be sent to tell you they have been blocked. If you intend to send us emails with attachments, please verify with us in advance that our system will accept the proposed form of attachment.

Other Agreements

To the extent there is a conflict between this Agreement and a separately negotiated and signed agreement between you and Willis Towers Watson, the relevant portions of the signed agreement will control.

Termination

In the event of termination, we will be entitled to receive and retain any commissions payable under the terms of our commission agreements with the insurers in relation to policies placed by us, whether or not the commissions have been received by us.

Our obligation to render services under the agreement ceases on the effective date of termination of the agreement. Nevertheless, we will process all remaining deposit premium installments on policies in effect at the time of termination. Claims and premium or other adjustments may arise after our relationship ends. Such items are normally handled by the insurance broker serving you at the time the claim or adjustment arises. However, it may be mutually agreed that we will provide services in these areas after the termination of our relationship for mutually agreed additional compensation. The obligations set forth under "Confidentiality" above shall survive any termination of the agreement.

Choice of Law

Our agreement for services shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the state in which our office is located.

Inquiries and Complaints

Your satisfaction is important to us. If you have questions or complaints, please inform the person who handles your account or contact the head of our office. Alternatively, you may call 1-866-704-5115, the toll free number we have set up exclusively for client feedback and complaints.

Request

Petition for Zoning Ordinance Language Amendment to amend "Definitions" by amending six (6) existing definitions and creating two (2) new definitions.

Background

Sweetwater County District Court recently ruled against the City of Rock Springs regarding a case brought by Page Gunderson, a resident of Rock Springs. Mr. Gunderson constructed an unenclosed covered porch on the rear of his house located at 332 Via Spoleta. The covered porch encroached into the required 20 ft rear yard setback.

Mr. Gunderson constructed the porch without a Building Permit. Mr. Gunderson filed for a Variance which was denied. The City of Rock Springs filed a complaint and Mr. Gunderson filed a counterclaim and the case went to District Court.

So, this Language Amendment is focused specifically on how building setbacks are applied to a "Porch". Furthermore, due to the Courts decision, certain "definitions" must be amended and certain "definitions" must be added.

Analysis

Staff has always considered a "Covered Porch" as being part of the principal building. Being part of the principal building it must meet front setback 20 ft, rear setback 20 feet, and side setbacks of 6 ft/10ft.

Staff has always considered an "Uncovered Porch" as a permitted encroachment into front/rear/side setbacks.

In District Court Mr. Gunderson argued that his porch was an "Accessory Building" and that a 3 ft setback should be applied, rather than a 20 ft setback. He also argued that his porch is unenclosed without walls which furthermore is why it should be considered an "Accessory Building". Mr. Gunderson further argued there were inconsistencies with specific definitions in the Zoning Ordinance including "Building", "Building Lines" and "Structure".

The City Attorney's Office has requested a Zoning Ordinance Language Amendment be initiated to clarify certain definitions and add definitions as needed.

The amended definitions and new definitions are as follows(deletions are denoted by strikethrough and additions are denoted by underline):

Accessory Building or Use:

a. A subordinate building, or portion of the principal building, or a subordinate use of land, any of which is are customarily incidental to the principle building or to the principle use of land. Subject to the exception in subsection (b), all accessory buildings or uses shall be on the same lot as the principal building or use. Where any part of an accessory building is connected to part of the principal building in a substantial manner as by roof, such accessory building shall be deemed to be a part of the principal building. Local public utility installations above ground are considered accessory buildings.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRIC WITHIN AND FOR SWEETWATER COUNTY, WYOMING

The City of Rock Springs,

Plaintiff,

Defendant.

Docket No. C-16-420-L

Summary Judgment for Defendant

This case comes before the Court on the City's second motion for summary judgment. Mr. Gunderson lives at 332 Via Spoleto in Rock Springs Mr. Gunderson's porch extends from his house to about seven feet from the property line in his backyard. The City wants the Court to decide that his porch violates the City's setback ordinance and order him to remove or modify it. Mr. Gunderson wants the Court to decide that his porch does not violate the setback ordinance. The City's first motion for summary judgment claimed this case was not justiciable (that the Court does not have authority to decide this type of case) and that Mr. Gunderson may not defend the case because he did not appeal denial of a request for a variance. The Court denied the motion. Now the City has filed a second motion for summary judgment and Mr. Gunderson has filed a cross motion for summary judgment. The parties have not requested a hearing and the Court has considered the briefs and is fully advised in the premises. The Court will grant judgment for Mr. Gunderson.

Facts

The porch is connected to the house and covered by a roof. It is not enclosed by walls. Mr. Gunderson built the porch without a building permit. He later requested a variance from the Board of Adjustment, which denied the request. The City filed a complaint under Wyo. Stat. Ann. § 15-1-512<sup>1</sup> for preliminary and permanent injunctions requiring Mr. Gunderson to abate a zoning violation, specifically alleging a violation of a 20 foot setback requirement. Mr. Gunderson filed an answer and counterclaim denying that his porch violates the setback ordinance and also requesting a judicial determination and declaration that his porch does not violate the setback ordinance. Mr. Gunderson's home is zoned R-1. The setbacks for zone R-1 are:

2002). Wyo. Stat. Ann. § 1-15-610 also authorizes an action to prevent zoning violations. (Mr. Gunderson mistakenly asserts section 610 authorizes "appropriate action" to prevent a violation, when in fact it authorizes a city to institute an action to prevent illegal occupancy or use.)

Rock Springs Ordinance §13-801.

"Setback" means

The minimum horizontal distance, measured perpendicular from a building line to a lot line.

Id. at § 13-601. "Building Lines" are

Lines that are tangent to the exterior surfaces of building or structures, or the surfaces of cantilevered projections therefrom, parallel to the front, side, corner side and rear lot lines, and referred to as front, side, corner side and rear building lines, respectfully.

Id. "Building," in turn, is defined as:

Any structure having enclosed space and a roof for the housing and/or enclosure of persons, animals or chattels, except mobile homes and mobile offices.

Id. And "structure" is defined as:

Means a walled and roofed building or manufactured home that is principally above ground.

Issues

The Court finds the following issues are raised by the parties:

- Does the rule of lenity apply?
- 2. How are setbacks measured?
- 3. What setback applies to Mr. Gunderson's porch?

Standard of Review

The familiar summary judgment standard of review requires a court to examine the record from the vantage point most favorable to the party opposing the motion, giving that party the benefit of all favorable inferences which may fairly be drawn from the record and grant summary judgment if the party moving for summary judgment demonstrates there is no genuine issue as to any material fact and the moving party is entitled to judgment as a matter of law. Lindsey v. Harriet, 2011 WY 80, ¶ 18, 255 P.3d 873, 880 (Wyo. 2011); Harper v. Fid. & Guar. Life Ins.

Co., 2010 WY 89, ¶ 30, 234 P.3d 1211, 1220-21 (Wyo. 2010); Jones v. Schabron, 2005 WY 65, ¶ 10, 113 P.3d 34, 37 (Wyo. 2005); Hoflund v. Airport Golf Club, 2005 WY 17, ¶ 29, 105 P.3d 1079, 1090 (Wyo. 2005); Ahrenholtz v. Laramie Econ. Dev. Corp., 2003 WY 149, ¶ 21, 79 P.3d 511, 516 (Wyo. 2003).

This case also raises issues of statutory interpretation and construction.

This court interprets statutes by giving effect to the legislature's intent.... We begin by making an inquiry relating to the ordinary and obvious meaning of the words employed according to their arrangement and connection.... We give effect to every word, clause, and sentence and construe together all components of a statute in pari materia. ... Statutory interpretation is a question of law.... If a statute is clear and unambiguous, we simply give effect to its plain meaning. Only when we find a statute to be ambiguous do we resort to the general principles of statutory construction. An ambiguous statute is one whose meaning is uncertain because it is susceptible to more than one interpretation.

It is a basic rule of statutory construction that courts may try to determine legislative intent by considering the type of statute being interpreted and what the legislature intended by the language used, viewed in light of the objects and purposes to be accomplished....

We are guided by the full text of the statute, paying attention to its internal structure and the functional relation between the parts and the whole. Each word of a statute is to be afforded meaning, with none rendered superfluous. Further, the meaning afforded to a word should be that word's standard popular meaning unless another meaning is clearly intended. If the meaning of a word is unclear, it should be afforded the meaning that best accomplishes the statute's purpose.

Discussion

Does the rule of lenity apply?

The Court addresses this issue first as it implicates the standard of review. Mr. Gunderson argues in the alternative that the Court should not make a finding specific to Mr. Gunderson due to the criminal implications attending a violation of the zoning ordinances. He specifically argues that even if the Court decides how the ordinances require measuring a setback and what setback applies to a covered, unenclosed porch, the Court should not make any specific finding that Mr. Gunderson's porch violates the ordinances. He contends that determination should be left to a jury of Mr. Gunderson's peers applying the "beyond a shadow of a doubt" burden of proof in a criminal prosecution for violating the ordinances.

Mr. Gunderson also cites the general rule that in the absence of statutory authority an injunction will not issue to restrain acts punishable by criminal law to support his argument that if a violation of law is a crime under the ordinances, then there cannot be a "violation" to be enjoined until after a criminal charge is made and a conviction rendered. See State ex rel. Kirk v. Gail, 373 P.2d 955, 956 (Wyo. 1962). Conversely, in this case there is statutory authority to support an injunction. Additionally, the City would be estopped from bringing a criminal case against Mr. Gunderson as it has represented it would be inappropriate to, and it will not, charge him. (Reply/Response brief at 2.)

Moreover, the rule of lenity does not apply unless a statute is ambiguous:

The specific allegation in the instant case is that the district court failed to apply the "rule of lenity" in construing the gambling statutes, which the appellants characterize as penal statutes. They cite Demeulencere v. State and Meerscheidt v. State for two propositions: (1) penal statutes are to be strictly construed and cannot be enlarged by implication or extended by inference; and (2) any ambiguity in a penal statute must be resolved in favor of the person against whom the statute is being applied.

We will summarily affirm the district court on this issue. To begin with, neither party contends that the statutes are ambiguous, and the district court did not find them to be ambiguous. We agree. And without ambiguity, statutory construction is inappropriate. Thus, the rule of lenity that applies to penal statutes, being a rule of statutory construction, has no role to play. If a statute is plain and unambiguous, we simply give effect to its plain meaning. ... And finally, the rule of lenity does not apply because the gambling statutes are more remedial than punitive in nature.

Eagles v. Forwood, ¶¶ 17-18, 126 P.3d at 855-56 (citations omitted).

Finally, Wyoming authority does not support the claim that the proceedings in this case are criminal in nature. In a case to recover a penalty (not even to enjoin or abate a violation) for building a public water supply system without a permit, the court explained the distinction between remedial and penal statutes:

Appellants assert that the proceedings in this case were criminal in nature... Appellants assert that the penalty provision of the statutes in question is criminal and not civil...

This is an exceedingly problematic question. The authorities are deeply divided and an analytical framework is difficult to construct. In this instance, the legislature has determined that the penalty for violating the statute may be recovered in a civil action. The legislature has not assigned the term "criminal" to the violation. However, we hold that mere avoidance of the term "criminal" will not determine the criminal or civil nature of a statutorily defined offense and thus preclude the application of constitutional guarantees. ...

We adopt a test which uses five criteria to determine whether a penalty imposed by the State is "criminal" or "civil." ... The five criteria are:

- (1) Type of offense. Is the offense one which is traditionally or by its very nature criminal? If not, it may be considered to be civil.
- (2) Penalty. What is the penalty and how severe is it? This has been isolated as the most significant factor, but it is by no means conclusive. Imprisonment may not be used as punishment for a civil offense. The imposition of a fine or penalty may be entirely consistent with an offense being civil in nature. On the other hand, a fine or penalty may become so severe in the context of the circumstances in which it is imposed that the offense becomes criminal in nature and the constitutional protections associated with criminal prosecutions are necessarily called into play. An arbitrary dollar figure cannot be rigidly set as the touchstone. Rather, the amount of the fine must be weighed in view of all the circumstances relevant to the offense in question.
- (3) Collateral Consequences. What other consequences are in the offing for the defendant in addition to the fine? Are there such collateral consequences and are they regulatory in nature or do they impose additional punishment?

- (4) Punitive Significance. This is perhaps the most difficult factor to weigh and the element of subjectivity must be scrupulously avoided. We must inquire whether the offense is one primarily motivated by punitive intent. Is the statute plainly one that inflicts "punishment"? Does the judgment have stigmatizing or condemnatory significance?
- (5) Arrest and Detention. Are the pretrial practices familiar to the criminal law utilized? If they are, that may serve to tip the balance in favor of a determination that the offense is criminal.

Nickelson v. People, 607 P.2d 904, 908-10 (Wyo. 1980); cf. 3B Norman Singer, Sutherland Statutory Construction § 77:7 (7th ed. Updated Nov. 2016) ("Zoning statutes and ordinances restrict the free use of land by the owner. As a result, they are in derogation of the common law, and courts apply a strict construction in favor of the landowner which allows the least restricted use of property").

Applying the factors described in Nickelson to this case, the Court concludes the zoning statutes and ordinances and this injunction and declaratory judgment case are civil in nature. Zoning regulations are not traditionally or by their very nature criminal, with their origins in nuisance and common law property rights for which remedies are entirely civil in nature. In the face of ever more, and higher density, development, the people through their democratically elected representatives have undertaken to limit conflicts between uses of adjacent or nearby lands. The City is not seeking a civil penalty or fine; only remedial relief is available in this case. The consequences of the relief sought are regulatory in nature, which can only be imposed if the equities of the case permit it. The Court concludes that even if the ordinances are ambiguous, the case is civil in nature<sup>3</sup> and the rule of lenity does not apply.

How are setbacks measured?

To begin, the City argues that a covered porch may only be constructed on &lt;sup>3</sup> Mr. Gunderson seems to suggest there could be inconsistent results if the rule of lenity does not apply in this case but would apply in a criminal case arising out of the same dispute. (Cross motion at 5.) Though at first glance that would seem incongruous, in reality inconsistent results in civil and criminal cases are common, and Mr. Gunderson cites no authority to support the suggestion that they're impermissible.

"that portion of a lot upon which construction is permitted," citing the definition of building area:"

The maximum horizontal projected area of the principal and accessory building, excluding open steps, terraces, unenclosed porches of one story, and architectural appurtenances projecting not more than two feet. Building area, as that portion of a lot upon which construction is permitted, is as follows: That area of a lot that lies within the boundaries of the front, side and rear yard setback requirements measured from the actual lot line.

Rock Springs Ordinance § 13-601. The City contends the definition of "lot coverage" is irrelevant, even though no one argues that it is relevant (see cross motion at 5):

Determined by dividing the area of a lot which is occupied or covered by buildings or roofed areas, including covered porches and accessory buildings, by the gross area of the lot.

Id. Finally, the City says what its position actually is:4

The issue for the City is not whether the porch is covered or unenclosed, but whether the roof covering the porch presents a "building line" from which the setback is measured. Succinctly stated, a completely unenclosed porch creates no building lines.

(Second motion at 6.) That's not to say that the City's position is understandable. The City doesn't explain what in the definition of "building lines" means an unenclosed porch would not create building lines. Clearly it would; nothing in the definition of building lines suggests parts of a building that don't have a roof don't have "exterior surfaces," and the ordinances recognize this by creating an exception for balconies and uncovered porches or decks in section 815, supra n. 5. Regardless, the Court agrees the setback is measured from a line tangent to Mr. Gunderson's porch. 5 6

&lt;sup>4</sup> The City also argues that it would be illogical for it to permit covered porches in a low density, R-1 district. (Motion at 6). Perhaps that's no way to run a railroad, but the Court's role in this case is limited to declaring the meaning of the zoning ordinance the City actually chose to enact; it is not the Court's role to pass on the wisdom of the City's zoning regulations. As Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes wrote, "I always say, as you know, that if my fellow citizens want to go to Hell I will help them. It's my job." Moreover, Mr. Gunderson points out that his lot is less than 50% covered, as required by "lot coverage" regulations, and the City does not dispute this. (Cross motion at 7.)

&lt;sup>5</sup> The City also argues the Court may consider extrinsic aids of interpretation, such as legislative history if available and rules of construction, to confirm a determination that a statute is unambiguous. Parker Land & Cattle Co. v. Wyoming Game & Fish Comm'n, 845 P.2d 1040, 1045 (Wyo. 1993). The City merely states "Had the Defendant obtained this pamphlet prior to constructing his deck, he would have been aware that a covered porch like the one he constructed was subject to the applicable building setbacks." (Motion at 8.) The City does not cite authority in

The distance from a building line to the lot line or property line is the setback. Rock Springs Ordinance § 13-601. Building lines are parallel to lot lines and tangent to buildings, touching but not intersecting a building. Id.; see Merriam-Webster Online Dictionary, http://www.merriam-webster.com/dictionary/tangent (last visited September 28, 2017).

Mr. Gunderson argues, however, that setbacks should be interpreted from the prospective of "yards"<sup>8</sup> and notes certain encroachments into setbacks are allowed by ordinance.<sup>9</sup> He argues there would be no need to allow encroachments support of the notion that the City's pamphlet is an appropriate extrinsic aid to interpretation, nor does it explain which ordinance's interpretation it confirms. This is insufficient to constitute cogent argument that would enable the Court to effectively consider this argument. Accordingly, the Court declines to consider this issue further. E.g., The Tavern, LLC v. Town of Alpine, 2017 WY 56, ¶¶ 41, 53 (Wyo. 2017).

<sup>6</sup> The City also cites an affidavit which purports to support its position. (Motion at 8.) As the cited portions of the affidavit are, in reality, legal conclusions, it is irrelevant.

<sup>7</sup> Lot lines are also defined by Rock Springs Ordinance § 13-601 consistent with the ordinary understanding of the term:

Lot Line, Front: In the case of an interior lot, a line separating the lot from the street, and in the case of a corner lot, a line separating the narrowest street frontage of the lot from the street.

Lot Line, Rear: A lot line which is opposite and most distant from the front lot line and, in the case of an irregular or triangular shaped lot, a line ten (10) feet in length within the lot, parallel to and at the maximum distance from the front lot line.

Lot Line, Side: Any lot boundary line not a front lot line or a rear lot line.

8 Yards are defined by Rock Springs Ordinance § 13-601:

Yard: A space on the same lot with a principal building, open, unoccupied other than by steps, walks, terraces, driveways, lamp posts and similar structures, and unobstructed by structures, except as otherwise provided in this Ordinance.

Yard, Corner Side: A yard on a corner lot the area of which is bounded by a line extending from the front of the principal building (the front building line) to a point intersecting the side street right-of-way line (side lot line), then along said side lot line to a point intersecting the rear lot line, then along said rear lot line to a point intersecting the line formed by extending the wall of the nearest principal building paralleling the side lot line.

Yard, Front: A yard extending across the full width of the lot between two side lot lines the depth of which is the least distance between the street right-of-way and the building line.

Yard, Rear: A yard extending across the full width of the lot between the two side lot lines and between the rear line and a parallel line tangent to the rear of the principal building and the depth of which is the least distance between the rear lot line and the parallel line.

Yard, Side: A yard extending between the front building line and the rear building line, the width of which is the least distance between the side lot line and the nearest part of the principal building.

<sup>9</sup> Rock Springs Ordinance § 13-815 provides:

H. Setback and Height Encroachments, Limitations and Exceptions

into setbacks if building lines are measured from eaves, porches, decks, balconies, gutters, and other listed exceptions which are attached to a house. (Cross motion at 10-11.) The Court disagrees. That doesn't makes sense. The Court concludes that

The following shall be considered as permitted encroachments on setback and height requirements except as hereinafter provided:

- (1) In Any Yards
- (a) In Any Yards The Following Are Permitted With No Required Setback From Property Lines:

Posts, driveways and parking areas, sidewalks and steps on grade, flag poles, ornamental features, signs, fire escapes, fences, yard lights and nameplate signs in residential districts, trees, shrubs, plants, flood lights or loading areas or authorized illuminated signs.

(b) In Any Yards The Following Are Permitted With A Minimum Setback Of Three (3) Feet From Property Lines:

Eaves, gutters, awnings.

- (2) In Front Yards:
- (a) In Front Yards The Following May Project No More Than Ten (10) Feet Into The Required Front Yard Setback;

Uncovered porches or decks not to extend above the height of the ground floor of the principal structure.

- (3) In Side and Rear Yards:
- (a) In Interior Side and Rear Yards, The Following Are Permitted With No Required Setback From Property Lines:

Recreational equipment and picnic tables, apparatus needed for the operation of active and passive solar energy systems.

(b) In Interior Side Yards And Rear Yards The Following Are Permitted With A Minimum Setback of Three (3) Feet From Property Lines:

Accessory utility or storage structures, detached garages.

- (c) In Side Yards, Chimneys May Project Two Feet Provided The Width Of Any Side Yard Is Not Reduced To Less Than Four Feet.
- (d) In Interior Side Yards And Rear Yards The Following Are Permitted With A Minimum Setback of Five Feet From Property Lines:

Balconies or uncovered decks above grade.

- (e) In Interior Side Yards, attached or detached carports are permitted with a minimum setback of three (3) feet from the property line, with roof height not to exceed height of the house and designed to drain away from the adjacent property.
- (f) In Corner Side Yards, attached carports are permitted only by Conditional Use Permit approval, with roof height not to exceed the height of the house, and designed to drain away from the adjacent property.
- (4) In Rear Yards The Following Are Permitted With A Minimum Setback Of Three Feet From Property Lines:

Accessory utility or storage structures, detached garages.

the zoning ordinances excepts eaves, gutters, etc. from the setback requirements because the plain meaning of the definition of a setback requires measuring from the part of the house closest to the lot line, and those parts of the house.

Mr. Gunderson makes an extensive argument that the definitions of fences and yards supports his argument. (Cross motion at 11-12). This part of his argument is obscure. He argues further that his position is supported by the phrase "or the surfaces of cantilevered projections therefrom" in the definition of building lines. He says that portion of the definition serves no purpose unless building lines are intended to be measured from the wall of the building that is directly on top of the foundation of the building. He contends this phrase would not add anything to the definition if it already meant that a building line is to be measured from the part of the building that's closest to the lot line.

Again, if this argument was correct there would be no need for any of the exceptions in § 13-815. Though Mr. Gunderson doesn't say it, the implication is that his interpretation must be accepted to afford each word of a statute meaning, with none rendered superfluous. He fails to acknowledge that his interpretation is problematic as well, as it requires reading "tangent to the exterior surfaces of building" as "tangent to the exterior walls of building that are directly on top of the foundation of the building." It's certainly true there's redundancy in the definition of building lines; the words "exterior surface" don't change the meaning any more than the "cantilevered projection" phrase Mr. Gunderson focuses on. That's not fatal to the interpretation:

There are times when redundancies are precisely what the legislature intended. Redundancy is not the same as surplusage for purposes of statutory interpretation. There is no rule of construction that precludes redundancy in a statute.

82 C.J.S. Statutes § 433 (2017 September Update) (citing Sabre, Inc. v. Dep't of Transp., 429 F.3d 1113, 1122 (D.C. Cir. 2005) (redundant language is often used so that broad provisions are not evaded); In re BankVest Capital Corp., 360 F.3d 291, 301 (1st Cir. 2004) (stating redundancy is not the same as surplusage and finding subparagraph not wholly superfluous); In re Estate of Nash, 220 S.W.3d 914, 918 (Tex. 2007) (stating treating language as surplusage should be avoided when possible, but recognizing at times repetition is intended out of an abundance of caution, for emphasis, or both); Bank Midwest, Minnesota, Iowa, N.A. v. Dayton, 770 P.2d 1112, 1116 (Wyo. 1989) (rejecting general presumption that deletion from statute changes meaning because it was just as reasonable to assume term was deleted because it was redundant and unnecessary); Wyoming Tr. & Mgmt. Co. v. Bonham, 694 P.2d 106, 109 (Wyo. 1985) (noting purpose of statute to eliminate duplications and redundancies); Arnold v. Am. Pipe & Supply Co., 413 P.2d 874, 875 (Wyo. 1966) (fact that legislature might do well to reexamine mineral lien laws and delete nonessential and redundant material does not change interpretive result).

The definition of setback is plain. That doesn't resolve the inconsistency between covered and unenclosed porches. The City's argument that unenclosed means uncovered is inadequate and unpersuasive. Enclosed porches are common in some parts of the country. Enclosed porches, outdoor spaces with uninsulated walls, windows, or bug screens, are common to mitigate the effects of weather or bugs. Saying there's no difference between a porch with a roof but no walls and a porch with no roof is absurd. The fact that a porch usually has a roof is part of what distinguishes it from a deck. See Merriam-Webster Online http://www.merriam-webster.com/dictionary/porch and /deck (last visited September 29, 2017) (defining porch as "a covered area adjoining an entrance to a building and usually having a separate roof' and defining deck as "something resembling the deck of a ship: such as ... a flat floored roofless area adjoining a house"). As it turns out, the Court need not resolve the inconsistency because neither party shows it has anything to do with measuring setbacks10 and it turns out that Mr. Gunderson's porch doesn't violate the setback requirements when measured as the definition of setback requires.

What setback applies to Mr. Gunderson's porch?

The City doesn't take a position about what setback applies to Mr. Gunderson's porch in its second motion for summary judgment. In the Court's order denying the City's first motion for summary judgment, the Court commented that Mr. Gunderson's porch seemed to be treated no differently from a lean-to, breezeway, or carport. Despite the City's repeated references to that order, the City does not identify the most important question raised therein: if the ordinance treats Mr. Gunderson's porch no differently than such things, how are they treated? Mr. Gunderson takes the position that the three foot setback for "Structures Accessory to Single Family Residences" applies. An accessory building or use is:

<sup>10</sup> The Court's order denying the City's first motion for summary judgment referred to an inconsistency between the ordinance and a pamphlet describing the ordinance, not an internal inconsistency within the ordinance.

A subordinate building, or portion of the principal building, or a subordinate use of land, any of which are customarily incidental to the principle building or to the principle use of land. Subject to the exception in subsection (b), all accessory buildings or uses shall be on the same lot as the principal building or use. Where part of an accessory building is connected to part of the principal building in a substantial manner as by roof, such accessory building shall be deemed to be a part of the principal building. Local public utility installations above ground are considered accessory buildings.

Rock Springs Ordinance § 13-601 (emphasis added). The City does not dispute that a porch is customarily incidental to a home or that it is a portion of the principal building. The City points out that because the porch is connected to the home by a roof, it "shall be deemed to be a part of the principal building." That seems correct, but it doesn't change the fact that the porch meets all the requirements of an accessory building, the definition of which includes a "portion of the principal building." The porch is, therefore, subject to a three foot setback, no different than, for example, a garage. This is the most likely, most reasonable, interpretation of the ordinance, given its design and purpose. The City offers no reason rooted in the language of the ordinance or rationality to conclude otherwise. Because the porch satisfies the applicable setback, it is, therefore, hereby ordered that

A detached accessory building, or portion of a main building, situated on the same lot of the principal building, used for the storage of motor vehicles.

Rock Springs Ordinance § 13-601 (emphasis added).

A private garage, whether attached or detached, would have a three foot setback under the Rock Springs City Ordinance.

DECLARED that Page Gunderson's porch does not violate City of Rock Springs zoning ordinances.

This is a final order that closes the case. Defendant may tax costs.
