MEDIA RELEASE

Date: May 31, 2016
Subject: RSPD Debuts Reward Program

RSPD Debuts Recognition Program at “That Yogurt Place”

According to Chief Pacheco:

The Rock Springs Police Department will debut a recognition program for children doing the right thing in the community on Friday, June 3rd at “That Yogurt Place” on Dewar Drive.

Starting this summer, RSPD officers will be recognizing children that are caught “doing the right thing” during the warmer months in Rock Springs. Officers will be looking for children who are obeying city ordinances and being safe outdoors while on summer break from school.

The reward for children is a frozen yogurt card, which is good for a free ice cream cone. That Yogurt Place has provided RSPD with 50 cards for officers to give out. Your child could receive a card for wearing proper protection when riding their bike, utilizing proper crosswalks on roadways, picking up trash in local parks, and even for responsibly walking their pets.

RSPD invites the public to attend the roll out of this program on Friday June 3rd from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m. at That Yogurt Place. Chief Pacheco will also discuss other programs that RSPD is going to be involved in this summer.

Additionally, RSPD parking and nuisance officers will be available during this time to answer questions. With the summer season approaching nuisance complaints increase. Feel free to stop by and ask questions regarding parking, weeds, and other nuisances.

We look forward to seeing you and your families on Friday.

RSPD Summertime Safety

Come join Rock Springs Police Chief Dwane Pacheco to discuss summertime safety.

Friday, June 3rd from 1:00 p.m.—3:00 p.m.

RSPD will be at “That Yogurt Place” to discuss our new program of recognizing children that are “doing the right thing” this summer.

Come join us to find out more about this and other programs we have this summer for children.

In addition, we will have our parking and nuisance officers there to answer questions about common complaints received during the warmer months in Rock Springs.

We look forward to seeing you and your family at our event.
