RSPD Investigates Criminal Entry

Rock Springs, WY—Following an investigation on Jan. 12, RSPD arrested Tracy Olsen on multiple felony charges late Friday afternoon.

On Jan. 12, 2017 Officers of the Rock Springs Police Department began an investigation involving Tracy Olsen. Olsen was suspected of committing several felonies however he had not yet been located.

On the afternoon of Jan. 13, the Rock Springs Police Department was notified of a break-in in progress at 1638 3rd East #5 in Rock Springs. Prior to police units arriving at the scene the caller reported Olsen had fled the residence on foot.

RSPD units entered the area and were able to track Olsen to the nearby residence at 1638 3rd East #36 where he fled. RSPD units surrounded the residence and demanded Olsen's surrender. Olsen failed to surrender and SCSO K-9 unit, Deputy Derrick Morrell and K-9 "Jara," responded to the scene.

After a brief stand-off, Olsen was located hiding in the residence and was taken into custody without further incident. Olsen (39) of Rock Springs was incarcerated at the Sweetwater County Detention Facility for the following charges:

- Three counts of Aggravated Assault
- Three counts of Kidnapping
- Child Abuse
- Criminal Entry
- Property Destruction
- Interference with a Peace Officer

Bond Information was not available at the time of this release.
