2-100 Municipal Court

Whenever in this chapter or any ordinance of the City of Rock Springs reference is made to "Police Court" or "Police Justice", such court or justice shall hereafter be referred to as "Municipal Court" and "Municipal Judge". (Ord. No. 89-30, 12-5-89)

2-101 Exclusive Jurisdiction

The Police Justice shall have the power and jurisdiction as provided by the laws of the State of Wyoming for police justices of municipal courts, and it shall be his duty to try, hear and determine all cases arising under the Ordinances of the city, and all complaints for the violation of said Ordinances. He shall hold court each day, except Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays, for the trial of such cases, and the transaction of such business as may properly come before him. He shall hold court at such regular hours as he may designate, and at such other times as may be necessary. No act shall be performed by him on Saturday, Sundays or legal holidays, except to receive complaints, issue process, and take bail. He shall have power to enforce due obedience to all orders, rules and judgments made by him; to issue warrants, subpoenas and other process that may be necessary for the attendance of witnesses; and he may fine or imprison any person for contempt offered to him while holding court, or to process issued by him, in the same manner and to the same extent as the District Court. No change of venue shall be granted in any case. (Ord. No. 80-25, 6-3-80).

2-101.1 General Penalty for Violations of Code; continuing violations.

(a) Whenever in this code or any ordinance of the City, an act is prohibited or is made or declared to be unlawful or an offense or a misdemeanor, or whenever in such code or ordinance the doing of any act is required or the failure to do any act is declared to be unlawful, regardless of whether a specific penalty for such act or failure to act has heretofore been established by any other ordinance, the violation of any such provision of this code or any such ordinance shall be punishable by a fine of not more than Seven Hundred Fifty Dollars ($750.00), a jail sentence of not more than six (6) months, or both, to which restitution may be added by the trial court. Each day any violation of this code or any ordinance shall continue shall constitute a separate offense. If any such violation is designated as a nuisance under the provisions of this code, such nuisance may be summarily abated by the police department of the City, or a citation may be issued and the violator punished in accordance with this section. In addition to any fine imposed under this section, such violator may be taxed for court costs or such other administrative fees as the court deems necessary for all ordinance violations.

(b) This general penalty provision is intended to and shall supersede all other penalty provisions heretofore enacted except as specifically provided hereafter.

(c) Provided, however, that this uniform penalty provision shall not apply to the specific penalties provided for by the following ordinance sections and sub sections: 7-403.1 Civil Penalties. (Ord. No. 83-12, 6-7-83; Ord. No. 89-24, 11-7-89, Ord. No. 2007-02, 3/06/07).

2-102 Complaint.

Actions for violations of Ordinances of this City, may be commenced by filing with the Police Justice a complaint under oath, made by the City Attorney, any member of the Police Department, or any responsible person, stating the nature of the offense, which complaint may be in the following form:

2-103 Defect in Form of Complaint
Not Fatal.

No action before the Police Justice shall be dismissed for any defect in form of said complaint if it substantially sets forth the nature of the violation alleged so as to give the defendant notice of the charge which he is to answer. And such complaint may include several persons charged with the

(Ord. 19, Section. 4, 8-4-04; 10-4, Rev. Ord.
1938; Rev. Ord. 1963).

2-105 Arrest Without Warrant.

Whenever any person has been arrested on view, or otherwise according to law,
without a warrant, after a complaint is filed,
the Police Justice shall enter in his docket
the fact of the arrest, by whom made, and shall hear and determine said charge as if a warrant had been issued. (Ord. 9, Sec. 4, 8-4-04; 10-5, Rev. Ord. 1938; Rev. Ord.
1963).

2-106 Person Arrested May Give Bail.

Any person arrested for any offense
under any Ordinance of the City of Rock Springs, may be admitted to bail by executing a bond to the City of Rock Springs, with sufficient surety to be approved by the Police Justice, conditioned that he will appear upon a day therein named before the Police Justice and answer the accusation for which he has been arrested and not depart from the court without leave thereof, which bond shall be approved by the Police Justice and filed in his office. Said bond may be in the following form:

STATE OF WYOMING,)
County of Sweetwater, :ss.
City of Rock Springs.)

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS That we, as principal and as sureties, are held and firmly bound unto the City of Rock Springs in the penal sum of: Dollars, for the payment of which, well and truly made, we hereby bind ourselves, our heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, jointly, severally and firmly by these presents.

THE CONDITION of the above obligation is such that, whereas, the above bounden has been arrested for (set forth the offense), which is in violation of the Ordinances of said City.

NOW, THEREFORE, if the said shall present himself and appear before the Municipal Court of said City, at the City Hall, on the day of 19, then and thereto abide the orders and judgment of said Court, and does not depart therefrom without leave thereof, then this obligation to become null and void, otherwise to be and remain in full force and virtue.

The amount of said bond shall in no case exceed the sum of Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00). (Ord. 19, Sec. 2, 8-4-04; 10-6, Rev. Ord. 1938; Rev. Ord. 1963).

2-107 Failure of Defendant to Appear.

If the defendant fails to appear according to the conditions of the bond aforesaid, or, appearing, shall depart the court without leave, the Police Justice may enter judgment against him and his sureties for the penalty of said bond. Upon entering judgment, it shall be the duty of the Police Justice to issue process in behalf of the City of Rock Springs, against the parties liable on said bond, requiring them to appear before him on a day to be mentioned therein, and show cause, if any they have, why judgment should not be confirmed against them, and execution issued on such judgment, and any judgment entered up as aforesaid may be set aside by the Police Justice if the defendant shall personally appear before the Police Justice at the time mentioned in said process, and show good cause for setting aside the judgment by affidavit of some credible person; and it shall be lawful for the sureties in said bond to appear before the Police Justice at the time aforesaid, and make the same defense that is allowed for the non-appearance of the principal under the laws of this state in similar cases before the justices of the peace. (10-7, Rev. Ord. 1938; Rev. Ord. 1963).

2-108 Commitment When Party Cannot Be Tried.

A party in custody who cannot be tried on account of the absence of witnesses, or other causes, and who cannot give bail for his appearance, may be confined in the City

Jail or other place of confinement not exceeding three days, and in such case the Police Justice shall deliver to the proper officer a commitment, stating the cause of the detention. (Ord. 19, Sec. 5, 8-4-04; 10-8, Rev. Ord. 1938; Rev. Ord. 1963).

2-109 Trial.

Cases in the Police Court for violations of City Ordinances shall be tried and determined solely by the Police Justice; except, if a jail sentence is to be imposed upon conviction, a jury trial may be had upon request, which trial shall be held before the Police Justice and a jury. Trial of all cases before the Police Justice shall be conducted in all respects, not hereinafter provided for, in like manner as criminal cases before Justices of the Peace, or County Court Judges, as the case may be. (Ord. No. 80-26, passed 6-3-80).

2-110 Witnesses.

It shall be the duty of said Justice to summon all persons whose testimony may be deemed material as witnesses at the trial, and to enforce their attendance by attachment, if necessary. All witnesses summoned by Police Justice shall receive One Dollar per day for each day in attendance. (10-10, Rev. Ord. 1938; Rev. Ord. 1963).

2-111 Rendition of Judgment.

Any person convicted before the Police Justice of any offense under the Ordinances of the City shall be punished by such fines, or imprisonment, as may be regulated by ordinance; provided, no fine shall be greater for any one offense than Two Hundred Dollars, recoverable with costs, and no imprisonment for a longer time than three months.

Upon the rendition of the judgment against any defendant for the violation of any Ordinance of this City, the Police Justice shall make an order and enter the same upon his docket, and if the defendant shall neglect or refuse to satisfy such judgment and cost of case, he shall be confined in the City Jail or other place of confinement one day for each dollar of such judgment and costs, not to exceed ninety (90) days; provided, that in any prosecution for violation of any ordinance, the defendant shall have the right to produce before said Police Justice one or more sureties to the satisfaction of said Justice, which said sureties shall, with the defendant, confess a judgment for the amount of the fine or penalty imposed, with costs of suit; and said Justice shall enter said confession of judgment upon his docket, and render judgment accordingly in the name of the State of Wyoming, against them for the amount of such fine and costs; and if said judgment be not paid within ninety days from the date of such confession, said Police Justice shall issue execution and collect the amount of said fine or penalty and cost, in the manner provided by law for collecting judgment by execution in Justice's Court. (Ord. 19, Sec. 6, 8-4-04; 10-11, Rev. Ord. 1938; Rev. Ord. 1963; Ord. No. 2240, 8-19-74).

2-112 Labor on Streets by Convicted Persons.

Any person convicted of an offense under any Ordinance of the City shall stand committed to the City Jail until the fine and costs assessed against such person are paid, and such person may also, at the direction of the Police Justice, be put to work upon any street, alley, or other public work of this City, for the benefit of this City, and shall be credited on such fine and costs One Dollar and Fifty Cents ($1.50) per day for each day such person shall work. Such prisoner shall be worked under the direction and supervision of the Marshal of this City, or some other person appointed by him. (10-12, Rev. Ord. 1938; Rev. Ord. 1963).

2-113 Malicious Prosecution.

In all prosecutions for fine or penalty, when the defendant shall be acquitted, the informer or prosecutor may, in the discretion of the Police Justice be adjudged to pay the costs, if it appears to the satisfaction of the Police Justice that prosecution was instituted vexatiously, maliciously or without reasonable cause, and the judgment shall be so rendered and executions shall issue therefor. (Ord. 19, Sec. 8, 8-4-04, 10-13, Rev. Ord. 1938; Rev. Ord. 1963).

2-114 Appeal.

In all cases before the Police Justice arising under Ordinances of the City, wherein the fine assessed exceeds the sum of Ten Dollars or the imprisonment ten days, an appeal may be taken by the defendant to the District Court in and for the County of Sweetwater, but no appeal shall be allowed unless such defendant shall, within ten days, enter into recognizance with sufficient sureties, to be approved by the Justice, conditioned for the payment of the fine and costs of appeal, and that defendant shall abide the judgment of said Court and not depart without leave of the same, or that he will pay to the said City of Rock Springs the sum of $ The procedure of such appeal shall be as prescribed for appeals from courts of justices of the peace in criminal cases. (10-14, Rev. Ord. 1938; Rev. Ord. 1963).

2-115 General Laws Shall Govern.

The Police Justice, the City Marshal and all police officers in all matters pertaining to the duties of their respective offices in judicial proceedings, and concerning which there is no specific provision in the general incorporation law, or in the Ordinances of the City, shall be governed by the laws of the State of Wyoming relating to and regulating the practice and proceedings in cases before Justices of the Peace and Constables so far as the same may be applicable. (Ord. 19, Sec. 7, 8-4-04; 10-15, Rev. Ord. 1938; Rev. Ord. 1963).

2-116 Application of City Ordinances at Airport.

(a) The ordinances of the City of Rock Springs, Wyoming, be, and they are hereby, declared to be in full effect and in force within the boundaries of the Rock Springs-Sweetwater County Airport, such land being owned by the City of Rock Springs, and the officials of the City of Rock Springs, shall,

and they are hereby directed to, enforce such ordinances within the boundaries of such Airport.

(b) The Police Justice of the City of Rock Springs shall have the power and jurisdiction, as provided by the laws of the State of Wyoming, to try, hear and determine all cases arising at the Rock Springs-Sweetwater County Airport under the ordinances of the City, and all complaints for the violations of such ordinances. (Ord. No. 75-16, 5-20-75).
